MISS TENNESSEE'S,
THE WONDERFUL CHILD
MAGNETIC LIFE ELIXIR
FOR
CLEANSING THE BLOOD AND
Beautifying the Complexion.
The great success this Elixir has met with induced me to put it before the public, and all I ask is to give it a fair trial, and it will then recommend itself. It will remove all DARK SPOTS, MOTES, PIMPLES AND ERUPTION UPON THE FACE OR BODY, and will give the complexion a clear and healthy color, and if directions are properly followed the skin will become almost transparent.
The properties of this syrup are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, and have a Wonderful Effect upon the Liver.
And cleansing the system of all other impurities, and restore a person to PERFECT HEALTH!
The properties and composition of this syrup were made known to me when a child and in a clairvoyant state, since which I have made constant use of it in my practice, and from the great success I have had in its use for the last 11 years, thought proper to bring it before the public.

of their guilt, and when required, will go part of the world, and find out about persons, dead or alive, and through her will tell inquiring friends their situation and where-

A Precious Document.
The following letter was found in the Streets of Columbia immediately after the army of General Sherman had left.
The document is still preserved, and can be shown and substantiated if any body desires. We are indebted to a distinguished lady of this city for a copy, sent with a request for publication. We can add nothing in the way of comment on such a document.
It speaks for itself.
CAMP NEAR CAMDEN, S. C., Feb. 26, '65.
My DEAR WIFE—I have no time for particulars. We have had a glorious time in this State. Unrestricted license to burn and plunder was the order of the day. The chivalry have been stripped of most of their valuables. Gold watches, silver pitchers, cups, spoons, forks, &c., are as common in camp as blackberries. The terms of plunder are as follows: The valuables procured are estimated by companies. Each company is required to exhibit the result of its operations at any given place—one-fifth and first choice falls to the share of the commander-in-chief and staff, one-fifth to the corps commanders and staff, one-fifth to the field officers of regiments, and two fifths to the company.
Officers are not allowed to join in these expeditions without disguising themselves as privates. One of our corps commanders borrowed a suit of rough clothes from one of my men and was successful in this place. He got a large quantity of silver (among other things an old time silver milk pitcher) and a very fine gold watch, from a Mr. De Saussure at this place. De Saussure is one of the F. F. V.'s of S.
C., and was made to fork out liberally.
Officers over the rank of captain are not made to put their plunder in the estimate for general distribution. This is very unfair, and for that reason, in order to protect themselves, subordinate officers and privates keep back every thing that they can carry about their persons, such as rings, earrings, breast-pins, &c., of which, if I ever live to get home, I have about a quart I am not joking—I have at least a quart of jewelry for you and all the girls—and some No. 1 diamond rings and pins among them. General Sherman has silver and gold enough to start a bank. His share in gold watches and chains alone, at Columbia, was two hundred and seventy-five (275).
But I said I could not go into particulars. All the general officers, and many besides, have valuables of every description down to embroidered ladies' pocket handkerchiefs. (I have my share of them too.) We took gold and silver enough from the d—d rebels to have redeemed their infernal currency twice over. This (the currency) whenever we came across it, we burned, as we considered it utterly worthless.
I wish all the jewelry this army has could be carried to the 'Old Bay State'.
It would deck her out in glorious style but, alas! it will be scattered all over the North and Middle States. The d—d niggers, as a general rule, prefer to stay at home—particularly after they found out that we only wanted the able-bodied men, (and, to tell you the truth, the youngest and best looking women.) Sometimes we took off whole families and plantations of niggers, by way of repaying the secessionists. But the useless part of these we soon managed to lose —sometimes in crossing rivers—sometimes by other ways.
I shall write to you again from Wilmington, Goldsboro, or some other place in North Carolina. The order to march has arrived, and I must close hurriedly. Love to grandmother and aunt Charlotte. Take care of yourself! Don't show this letter out of the family.
Your affectionate husband, THOMAS J. MYERS, Lieut., &c.
P. S.—I will send this by the first flag of truce to be mailed, unless I have an opportunity of sending it to Hilton Head. Tell Sallie I am saving a pearl bracelet and earrings for her.
But Lambert got the necklace and breast-pin of the same set. I am trying to trade him out of them. These were taken from the Misses Jamison, daughters of the President of the South Carolina Secession Convention.
We found these on our trip through Georgia.
This letter was addressed to "Mrs.
Thos. J. Myers, Boston, Mass."

AFTER MERIDIAN.
AN AMUSING DESCRIPTION OF A MIS-SISSIPPI RAILROAD STATION. — Some writer gives the following account of a hotel which we believe to be unparalleled on the face of the globe in the wretchedness of its accommodations.
Having been there, and "seen the elephant" with our personal optics, we can testify to the fact that there is more truth than poetry in the description. Those who are in the habit of enjoying the luxurious accommodations of the Rankin House, in this city, can appreciate the miserable contrast afforded by the Meridian concern: A pleasant railroad station is Meridian, Mississippi. The Selma (Ala.) Messenger says of it: "A gentleman who had some experience in stopping over at Meridian during the war, and whose business called him to Mississippi, was expatiating to Gen. Johnston upon the discomforts of an apprehended stoppage there. 'O,' replied the general, 'Meridian has improved.' 'The Hotel has been burnt down.' Upon this text a writer in another southern journal humorously descants as follows:
"Who that ever traveled during the war through Meridian does not remember that hotel? The rush of travelers from the cars to the door would be met by the gentlemanly proprietor with 'Walk in, gentlemen, walk in.'
'Give me a private room,' would be demanded of fifty speculators and commissionaries with stuffed carpet bags who were distrustful of their neighbors.
'Certainly,' would be the invariable reply, and No. 49 would be chalked on the baggage. At night such a scene, when all the proprietors of private apartments would meet together in the garret, which was No. 49.
There was very good food at the hotel, at least the insects thought so, for they assembled from every quarter to feed on the travelers. A distinguished Confederate general said that his plan for destroying Grant's army was to let them take Vicksburg and Jackson, and those of them that survived the trip on the railroad to Meridian (which was always killing some one) would starve to death at that delectable place. Dodgers, tanbark coffee and dried masses of trichina were diversified with haw pie, squirrel tart and sour molasses, when such distinguished visitors as D. V., of West Baton Rouge, came along, and would not be satisfied with less.
'Climberly whiskey, which, although maniac in its tendency destroyed trichina in the system and made a man oblivious to the biting of bugs, could be had for its weight in manure.
And if you did not like the accommodations afforded by No. 49 you could be down, (no one ever slept except the dead in that town) in the string of dilapidated cars that formed the city.
'It is said that Meridian was humanely selected by the authorities as the place to which car loads of hopelessly sick Confederates were sent to die, as they could leave the world with less regret from that spot than any other in the Confederacy. Good bye, Meridian. May we live three score years and ten and never gaze upon your red hills, black-jacks, and yellow rats again."

Pen and Scissors.
Heavy shipments of cotton are arriving at Louisville daily.
A telegraph line is about to be erected between New Orleans and San Francisco.
There were $1,336,152 02 in the Kentucky State Treasury on the 1st of this month.
A man named Jas. Oldham was caught at Smithland, last week, with seven horses in his possession.
The Danville Gazette reports a number of robberies and attempted assas-inations in Boyle county within the last two weeks.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—A Carson City dispatch says that the Radicals carried the Nevada State election by about 10,000 majority.
The tobacco crop of Henderson county, which has all been safely housed, is said to be the best and largest ever raised in that county.
The oil excitement is running high in Barren county. A number of wells have been opened which yield the oleaginous product in profitable quantities.
The farm of the late J. W. Weare near Mayslick, of over 200 acres, was sold on Thursday last to J. V. Burgess, of this city, at $80 per acre.—Maysville Bulletin.

A negro was killed near Sharpsburg Bath county, on Wednesday, the 24th ult., by a man by the name of Wren.
Wren was heard before an examining court and acquitted.
MADRID, Nov. 5.—The Queen of Spain has made an offer to the Pope of a residence at Grenada, and Spanish vessels of war are placed at his disposal in case of emergency.
Gov. Bramlette has recommenced Thursday, the 29th inst., as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, in accordance with a general proclamation of the President to the same effect.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Letters from Juarez announce the arrival at Chil-ahua of 60 American officers, who would immediately be assigned to service in the Liberal army.
It is said that the emperor Napoleon has told the empress Carlotta to advise Maximilian to cede one or two Mexican provinces to the United States, to consolidate his power in the empire.
Two convicts on their way to the penitentiary on Tuesday last made their escape from the train, a few miles above Frankfort. One of them was recaptured the next day.
On Wednesday night, the 54th ult., a negro woman, living on Mr. Geo.
Harris' farm, near Aaron's Run, Montgomery, was murdered while in bed.
Her husband, whom it is thought, was to have been the victim, escaped.
A man by the name of John Brennan, a brakeman on the Louisville and Lexington Railroad, fell from the top of a car while the train was in motion on Wednesday last, and received such injuries as to cause his death in a few hours.
On Thursday morning last at 3 o'clock, two hundred barrels of coal oil, discharged on a barge from the steamer T. J. Pickett, accidentally caught fire, and, together with the barge, were entirely consumed. The loss is estimated at $1200, on which there was no insurance.—Maysville Bulletin.

The Louisville Courier mentions as a singular coincidence that Hons. Alvin Duval, Joshua F. Bullitt, and B.
J. Peters met without preconcert on Tuesday night, at the residence of H.
J. Stites, near that city. The four constituted at one time the Court of Appeals of this State. It must have been a pleasant re-union.
TOLEDO, O., Nov. 4.—A horrible double murder was committed at Coldwater, Mich., last night. Mrs. Ebenezer Leach and George Brown, a young lawyer, were shot dead while walking together in the streets. The murderer is the husband of Mrs. Leach, and has been arrested. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause.
A Lexington paper of 30th ult., says that, on Saturday last, very much to the surprise of every one, it was discovered that Mr. Horace Armat who shot and killed Mr. Benj. Warfield, a short time ago, had disappeared from his hotel. He was last seen about 7 o'clock Friday night, and as we have stated, his absence was not discovered until 9 o'clock next morning. We understand that a large reward has been offered for his arrest, but up to the present writing we have heard of no clue to his whereabouts.

FIRE IN CHRISTIAN COUNTY.—On Friday morning last the large tobacco stemmery of Dr. J. A. Wheeler, six miles from Hopkinsville on the Clarke-ville road, was destroyed by fire. There was in it at the time about 30,000 pounds of tobacco of the new crop, and all the agricultural implements of the plantation. Dr. Wheeler estimates his loss at from $8,000 to $10,000, upon which there was no insurance.

BURIAL OF GEN. HANSON.

The funeral ceremonies of the interment of the remains of Gen. Roger W. Hanson, at Lexington last Sunday, were attended by an immense concourse of the people. It is estimated that about fourteen thousand were present on the occasion, to do honor to Kentucky's noble and lamented son. It was the spontaneous tribute of a chivalrous people to one of their gallant dead, and the scene must have been deeply grateful to the bereaved heart of the widow.

Gen. Hanson was gifted with a genius and tact that had won for him a national reputation as an orator and statesman; and on the tented field, his skill and courage gave him rank among the best and bravest of an army of heroic men. Devoted to principle, he hastened to give his sword to the cause he thought was right—and fell at Murfreesboro, baptizing his faith in his blood.

Elder J. Desha Fickett, formerly chaplain Gen. Hanson's brigade, delivered an appropriate, eloquent and most touching funeral oration, which we will publish in full next week.

Order reigned throughout the day, and nothing occurred to offend the most sensitive, or to interrupt unpleasantly the mournful rites.

About the meanest specimen of military spite we have seen lately is shown in an order from Gen. Thomas, prohibiting any military display on the part of those who attended Gen. Hanson's funeral. Nothing of the kind was intended, and the order was so utterly unnecessary that it looks like an intentional insult.

In the case of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, Judge Bartol has rendered a decision affirming the power of Gov. Swann to remove the old board for official misconduct. The new Commissioners have entered upon their duties.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says of the insanity of the Empress Carlotta: The hallucination was evidenced by her insisting that she was surrounded by Mexican and other enemies who sought to take her life, so she absolutely refused to quit the Vatican. The Pope treated her with much kindness, inviting foreign ladies of distinction to remain with her during the night, the Empress being accommodated in the palace, contrary to rule and precedent.

The following comes from the city of Mexico, through Liberal channels: "The neighborhood of the city and the country generally is overrun with bands of guerrillas, professedly liberals but in practice bandits and cut throats. A band under one Antonio Perez, took possession, last month, of Apam, a village 50 miles from the capital, sacked the houses, carried off some of the inhabitants for ransom, and finished by violating the best women of the town in the public square under the direction of their leader."

New York, Nov. 13.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondent says Maximilian's abdication was unknown until he was almost ready to start. On the road he met Gen. Castelnau, but only made a passing salute and would not admit of a conference. Later it was thought he would return to the capital, but in that case Marshal Bazaine had intended to send him under a guard to Vera Cruz.

Castelnau was being treated very cavalierly by Bazaine, who is busy making new contracts for army supplies and for a length of time which does not look to a speedy departure of the troops. As soon as Maximilian is known to have left the country Bazaine will declare himself dictator.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The best posted people in Washington are of opinion that the present negotiations will end in the United States establishing a protectorate over the Mexican territory.

The Downsville Gold Mining Company, whose office was at 70 Wall street, New York was found to have failed and a number of stock brokers were badly victimized. The market was flooded with their worthless shares. A civil suit was immediately commenced against Messrs. Riley and Wheeler, who appear to have been connected with the company, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences, and they were lodged in the county jail, on 12th, in default of $13,000 bail each.

THE PARKINSON MURDER TRIAL.

In May last, Allison Parkinson, a highly respected citizen of Jasper county, who resided about eight miles from Bens-clar, discovered that his daughter, a lovely girl of fifteen summers, had been seduced by a young man named Guthrie (Parkinson's own cousin, who resided upon an adjoining farm). Parkinson had been absent from home for some time. He returned late the night previous to the day on which the killing took place. His wife broke to him, that night, the startling and terrible fact of his daughter's ruin and the disgrace of his household. The next afternoon Parkinson went to the residence of Guthrie, who lived with a brother, found him in the table, charged his pistol upon him, and shot him dead on the spot.

Parkinson was arrested, and shortly after indicted for murder in the first degree. On a change of venue the case was taken to Tippecanoe county, where he has been on trial for the past eleven days, the case exciting quite as much interest in that community as the Newland case did in this.

From Mr. John Bentley, conductor on the L. N. A. & C. R. R., we learn that the case was submitted to the jury on Thursday night. When the court opened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the jury returned a verdict acquitting Parkinson. When the verdict was rendered, the prisoner was cordially greeted by hundreds of people that had crowded the court-house, and the scene that ensued is described to us as most affecting.

Great legal ability was shown by the attorneys engaged in the prosecution. But the verdict of the jury justified the father in avenging the ruin of his daughter by killing her seducer. The verdict was a righteous one, and is another warning to the seducer that he may expect dreadful and sure punishment to follow his crime.—New Albany Ledger.

He reports the sale of a yoke of oxen, averaging sixteen hundred pounds, at 5 dollars 25 cents per hundred; 18 head of yearlings, second grade, at 5 dollars 25 cents per 100 lbs.; two year olds, smooth and in good order, 5 1/2 cents at the outside; beef cattle of light grade, 4 to 5 cents. There were a great many horses on the market, and brought low figures, averaging from 75 to 100 dollars per head.

Much feeling is exhibited throughout the State of Georgia on the subject of repudiation. It is thought an effort will be made on the meeting of the Legislature in November to relieve the people from paying of debt in debts contracted prior and during the late war. The plea urged for repudiation is the loss of slaves and the failure of the crops. The amount of property returned in the State for 1866 is $207,000,000; in 1860, $620,322,777. Loss to the State over $463,000,000.

The presiding mistress of a boarding house "hoped the tea was good." "Very good, indeed, madam," was the general reply; but Jones, between truth and politeness, observed "that the tea was excellent, but the water was smoked."

The President has ceased granting pardons to ex-rebels, for reasons, it is stated, of a political character, resulting from the recent elections.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 11.—Another attempt was made last night to throw the Nashville bound train from Louisville off the track at the same locality. Rails had been piled on the track apparently by inexperienced operators. The locomotive dashed through and over the obstructions without damage.

Dr. Mary Walker, one of the latest American bloomers, is now in England preaching reforms in woman's dress and political position. At the Manchester social meeting she said woman was over worked and her vitality exhausted in carrying around a dry goods store.

SERIOUS BURNING.—Sunday afternoon a negro girl aged 14 years, living with Mr. Stilwell, of this city, imprudently set a can of coal oil on the cooking stove, the heat from which melted off the bottom of the can and the oil spread over the stove. At the moment the oil ignited, the girl entered the room and her clothes took fire and were almost entirely consumed, burning her so badly that no hopes are entertained of her recovery.
